A Message From Our Bishop

May 12th, 1975.

My dear Students:

In the present age, it is almost impossible to place the total burden of religious education upon your parents and to pretend that a true education in the Faith can be achieved in your home exclusively. This does not in any way diminish the insistence upon the paramount importance of your home in your religious education. On the contrary, a true Catholic education can hardly be achieved without strong parental influence. But the parental influence must be assisted and developed by an atmosphere in the formal education setting, which is not limited to a single period in religious doctrine. Young Catholics such as those attending St. Thomas More Comprehensive School, perhaps more than ever before in recent history, have the need of the atmosphere of a good Catholic School.

I believe you have such a school and it is my hope and prayer that you will not only befit from your formal studies in this school but that you will also deepen your faith and religious practice.

With kind personal regards to all the students and staff of St. Thomas More School, I am,

Cordially yours in Christ,

+ Paul Reding

Bishop of Hamilton.

A Message From Our Principal

Mr. W.G. Reid

I wish it was possible to share with you my feelings as I stood with Bishop Reding this June watching our first graduates step forward to receive recognition for their three or four years of high school work. I pondered their future . . . I remembered a host of incidents which singled out their past . . . I reflected on the work of my staff . . . I asked myself, "are they properly prepared?" I chuckled at the nervous, yet sincere mistakes of a six foot man, who towered a good foot over me in his platform shoes, as he blurted out, "thank you, your majesty." Even our bishop had difficulty keeping his composure, however deep in his heart, as in mine, was the confidence that here was a young man with a challenge to go forth as a graduate of our catholic high schools, a representative of the aspiration of so many pastors, teachers and friends. A young man whose parents hope will be expressed in the next few years by his actions. Will he make it? Would I be happy if I could see into the future?

I suppose somewhere on high, God must very often say the same thing. I have given them so much. I have given them my love. Will they give in return to their fellow man, to Me?

We will walk many different paths during the next few years, and I will walk with you, as you with me; for indeed we are all a part of each other.

Happiness is knowing that we will walk tall in each other.

W. G. Reid
Principal

Executive Council

Mr. Narduzzi

I am grateful to the editor of the Squire for allowing me this opportunity to express a few thoughts as Dean of Instruction at St. Thomas More.

This has been a very significant year in terms of academic success as evidenced by our first graduation class.

The ladies and gentlemen who received their diplomas in June, 1975, exemplify the type of education that we are attempting to provide in our school.

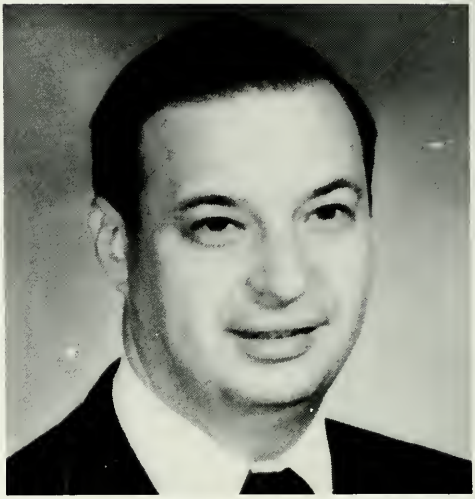
Today, employers seek students who possess self-motivation, maturity, responsibility and integrity. They will employ graduates who are able to organize their thinking, work with others and recognize human strengths and weaknesses. In addition the identification, analysis, and solution of problems is of high priority to the business world.

Our staff at St. Thomas More tries to inculculate in the students' minds some of the requisite skills that they will need.

We have attempted to show that fact without reason or reason without fact is worthless, that criticism without alternate solutions has no value, that confidence in identifying and solving problems comes with practice and not by instinct and that brilliance without discipline is the ultimate immaturity.

In addition to academic objectives that are found in any educational institution we have also tried to instill Christian values: charity, honesty, decency, respect for oneself, one's peers and one's elders.

A full person is a composite of religious conviction, intellectual ability and social graces. It is in this respect that we are striving to make our school truly comprehensive.



Dr. Girhiny

This is a very special time for it marks the occasion of the first graduating class from St. Thomas More Comprehensive School. The moment is special not only for the graduates but also for the entire S. T. M. family, since graduation is the culmination of efforts over the past few years. I am filled with pride to have been a part of S. T. M. from the time when there was only a principal to the present and it is with deep regret that I now leave. To all my colleagues and to all the students who have made my stay here so very special and rewarding I bid adieu and ask God's blessings for your future.

A farewell reflection: -
Who is wise?
- the man who can learn something from every man.
Who is strong?
- the man who overcomes his passion.
Who is rich?
- the man who is content with his fate.
Whom do men honor?
- the man who honors his fellow men.

Crusade '74

On November 2nd the separate schools of the Hamilton area came together and participated in a walkathon. The first steps towards the twenty mile walk were made at St. Jean de Brebeuf School and the last few came at Bishop Ryan. The money raised went to support Catholic Education.

Although fine weather was not present on that day; spirit certainly was. Many thanks to those who walked or sponsored, your help was greatly appreciated.

The Senior Knights slayed a few dragons this season. They charged into the league by defeating MacDonald.

Then it was the dragons' turn to breathe fire and the Knights were wounded but not killed by talented Scott Park and Hill Park clubs.

It is to the credit of the players that two back-to-back losses did not discourage them. The team mounted its steed and went on to dent the armour of Westmount and then to stun McNab with a thrilling outing.

The crusade ended with Knights holding a 3 and 2 record. In the quarter final, Hill Park was behind 14-0 at halftime but rallied to defeat our stubborn but inexperienced squad 21-14.

Laurels are due to our permanent and honourary captains as well as the whole team, and a special thanks to our managers.

Congratulations to our coaches: Mr. St. Michael, Mr. Morton, Mr. Barrey and Father Talbot.

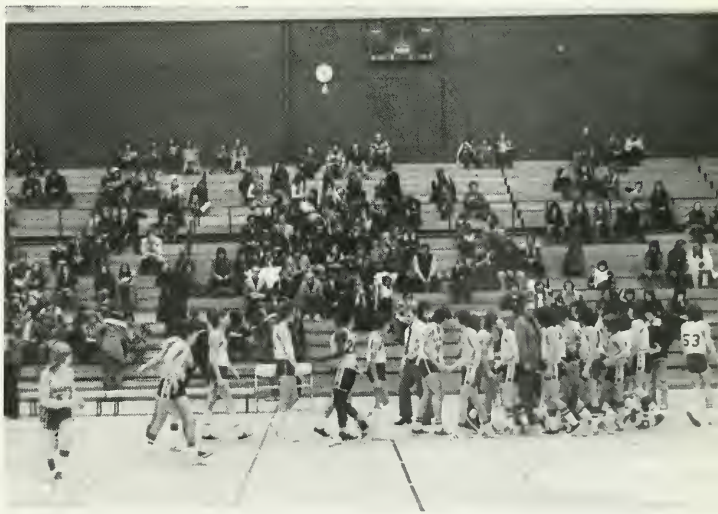
This year's boys' midget basketball team encountered a very successful and enjoyable season. Their pre-season games were marred by only one defeat and this led into an undefeated season. The excellent coaching and discipline led the team to gain their third successive city championship for St. Thomas More. We are very proud of the team's success this year and hope that the forthcoming teams will continue to carry on the tradition that the midget teams have created.



Junior Boys' Basketball

This year's junior basketball team was probably one of the finest junior teams to play in the city in recent years.

Many games at the start of the season were against older clubs but our boys proved themselves the better team time and time again. Highlights of the season were winning the city championship, winning the Bishop Ryan Tournament for the second year in a row and any team would be proud of playing thirty games, 29 of those wins and 1 loss.

Our season was successful due to these factors; each player had his own individual strengths such as, the shooting of Frank DePalma, the leadership and floor play of Joe Slomka, the hustle of Jerry Crapsi and Matt Costanza and the aggressive rebounding of Mike Gallagher.

These strengths were channeled into fine team play by coaches Mike Morton and Al Smithson. As a result of the hard work and dedication of everybody on the team and championship rests once again at St. Thomas More.

Senior Boys' Basketball

"Blood, Sweat and Tears" became the motto for the Senior Knights in their second year of Grade 12 competition; however, there wasn't enough to produce a championship team. At times the Knights played well realizing their potential: Mohawk College Consolation Champions and Fourth Place in the Ontario Catholic Tournament; while at other times they failed to win the "big one", costing them first place in league competition and eventual elimination from the quarter-finals and the Silver Fox Tourney.

On an individual basis, there were many outstanding contributions. As leading scorer (346) and rebounder (117-118), Ted Pangia earned the team's M. V. P. and the SPECTATOR M. V. P. Award. Rick Maloney, Brian Jeremie, Charlie Collura and Rob Luciani played with greater confidence as the season progressed. Mike O'-Neal, Aldo Berlingieri, Mike George and Fausto Carnicelli, returning Seniors, provided the leadership for the first-year Senior rookies, Matt Maychak, Ed Vertatschitsch, Roger Viola, Marc Thackray and Reno Berlingieri. Our managers, Greg Dworak, Joe Varga and Joe Szilagyi, and statistician, Ralph DeNardis, contributed so much to this year's Senior Knights team.

Our sincerest thanks to all,
Mr. Luciani
Mr. Coons

This year, the junior girls' basketball team experienced one of their best seasons. Through a lot of hard work, and co-operation with each other, the girls advanced to the city championships.

After an undefeated, relatively untested season, the girls showed what they could really do, when they were pitted against an equally undefeated team in the semi-finals. The game against Delta was a fantastic display of hard work, perseverance, discipline, and skill; Delta was defeated by ten points. As a result, Sir Allan MacNab became S.T.M.'s sole opponents.

Unfortunately, what worked during the game with Delta just wasn't clicking for the girls in the big game and the final score had S.A.M. ahead by four points.

Disappointment was inevitable, but when the season was looked at in its entirety, the achievements the girls made, and the benefits they derived from playing and working together as a team, far exceeded the disappointment felt over one game.

Senior

Among the accomplishments of the "Senior Girls' Basketball" team this year were posting an 8-2 win-loss record, victories in the quarter and semi-finals over Southmount and Sherwood respectively, compiling the best defensive record in the city and a gallant but losing effort in the city final against Hill Park. The girls also generously hosted the St. Mary's Milwaukee girls' team playing volleyball and basketball with them.

Besides earning credit and acclaim for our school and themselves the girls learned the essential link between dedicated effort and improved play. Understanding of this nature will not be lost on the calibre of the young women on our '74-75 Senior Girls' Basketball team.

Soccer

CONGRATULATIONS to the Soccer Team for the fine work and determination they displayed during their season. Under the leadership of Fausto Carnicelli, Rob Luciani, Toni Evangelista and Al Zaccharia the team had a fine season. Their record led them into the city finals. Although their efforts fell short against Scott Park they proved St. Thomas More couldn't be taken lightly.

We're sure next year's team with both experience and dedication behind them will be sure to make the fans of St. Thomas More very proud of them.

Winter Carnival '75

Saint Thomas More's Winter Carnival this year was a huge success. This three day celebration was highlighted by such events as: Dance Contest, Clash Contest, Supermarket-Cart Race, Girls' Flag Football, Car Rally, Skating Party, Basketball Game, and the Big Hockey All-Star Game between the "C.K.O.C. No Stars" and the Saint Thomas More Teachers and Students.

Special thanks must go to great numbers of people; without whose co-operation and work these festivities would have been impossible.

Hamilton

$85 million just vanished into clear air.....

And water. We've spent a lot of time and money improving both. Since 1961 Stelco has spent or committed $85 million on environmental quality control — $75 million right here in Hamilton.
One example is the ion exchange system at Hilton Works, where solution from the tinning process is purified and the water recycled. Another is the unique water recirculation and cleaning system installed on our largest blast furnace. Electrostatic precipitators now improve both air and water quality at the Acid Regeneration Plant. More baghouses have been built to collect fumes at the Open Hearth Shop. A baghouse was also completed at 'D' blast furnace where it collects dust generated by raw material screening.

And there's more . . . . . .
Work continues on the final phases of the sanitary sewage system; on the extensive filtering plant that will clean 60,000,000 gallons of Rolling Mill waste water per day. On two new coal charging cars at the Coke Oven batteries, the latest technology will prevent atmospheric emissions while charging the ovens. Stelco recognizes the Company's responsibility as Canada's largest steel producer, to lead the way in preserving the ecosystem. This is why, apart from helping to make Hamilton one of Canada's most prosperous cities, we are wholeheartedly committing time, money and energy in an endeavour to protect its environment. For you. For all of us.
